TRAVEL INFORMATION

Urbino is a city in central Italy, located about 200 km northeast of Rome. It can be reached by car or public transportation.

- By car:

A14 Highway:

- From the North: Exit at Pesaro-Urbino > SS. 746 (~35 km)
- From the South: Exit at Fano > SS. 73bis (~45 km)

Below are some suggested parking options, their prices, and distances from the University. The complete list (and related information) is available on the Urbino Municipality website <https://www.urbinoservizi.it/servizio/parcheggi-a-urbino/>. Parking can be managed through the EasyPark app.

- If You Are Traveling by Public Transportation:

- By Train:

You can reach Urbino by taking a train to Pesaro railway station, then continuing by bus (recommended) or taxi. The public bus service is operated by Adriabus, with departures every 30 minutes (on the hour and at half past).

- To travel from Pesaro to Urbino, take the Green Line.
- To travel from Urbino to Pesaro, take the Red Line.

The journey from Pesaro (Pesaro Station) to Urbino (Urbino S. Lucia Park) takes about 55 minutes, and the ticket costs €3.90. Alternatively, the same route can be covered by taxi (pre-booking recommended) in approximately 45 minutes (€ 60-70 euro).

- Urbino: <https://www.comune.urbino.pu.it/amministrazione/settori/polizia-municipale-e-amministrativa-servizi-demografici/servizio-taxi>

- By Air:

Urbino is accessible from the airports of Ancona, Rimini, Bologna, and Rome. The closest airport is Ancona (~87 km). The nearest international airport is Bologna (~178 km).

From Bologna Airport, take the People Mover to Bologna Central Station (10 minutes), then a train to Pesaro (1 hour 40 minutes).
From Ancona Airport or Rimini Airport, take a shuttle bus to the railway station (quick connections every 15 minutes in both cases) and then a train to Pesaro.
From Rome Airport (Fiumicino), take a train to Roma Termini station (frequent and fast connections) and then a train from Roma Termini to Ancona and Pesaro.

In all cases, the journey from Pesaro to Urbino must be completed by bus or taxi.

Additional Information:

You can purchase an integrated train and bus ticket for Urbino via Freccialink directly on the Trenitalia website_ <https://www.trenitalia.com/it>. Simply enter your departure city and Urbino as your final destination to buy the ticket.

How to reach Auditorium Convento San Girolamo:

If arriving from Pesaro station by bus, the closest stop is Urbino S. Lucia. Once you arrive at the bus terminal, take the elevator to the historic center (up to the 6th floor) and then another elevator to the 10th floor. Exit the shopping center, and you will find yourself at Porta Santa Lucia, just a 15-minute walk <https://shorturl.at/zJ2St>
